

Grammatik

Die Zeitformen

present simple, present progressive, will-future, going to-future

1 Fill in the right verbs. Look at the signal words first.

is – am visiting – ~~watch~~ – will be – are going to take – is walking – are doing

1. Every Sunday I watch funny films at the cinema.

But today I am visiting my father in Bristol.

2. At the moment Sarah is walking the dog.

3. My sister is always late for school.

4. Our friends cannot come because they are doing their homework now.

5. The students are going to take the exam next week.

6. Tomorrow it will be sunny.

2 Fill in the right form of the verb in brackets. Use the right tense.
Look at the signal words.

1. I usually go (go) to the cinema on Sundays.

But today I am going shopping (go shopping) with my friend.

2. My brother hopes his favourite football team will win (win) the match.

3. My sister always takes (take) the bus to school.

She never goes (go) by bike.

4. Next week my teacher is going to fly (will fly) to England.

5. She and her students are going to stay (will stay) at a hotel in London.

6. Look at that man over there! He is wearing (wear) a pink hat!